

UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

O P E N H O U S E

O P E N M I N D

Saturday, April 16, 2011

9 am - 4 pm

Free Workshops for Students, Parents & Families hosted by the Center for Educational Partnerships

Learn about preparing for college and ways to finance a college education!

Preparing for College: Middle School

10:00 — 11: 00 AM
20 Barrows Hall

How should students in grades 6-8 begin preparing for college now? How can parents and families support them on their educational journey? Get answers here.

Community College:
Strategies to Maximize
Your Community College
Experience and Prepare for Transfer to UC Berkeley

10:00 — 11:00 AM
166 Barrows Hall

Learn how to make a successful transition to community college and prepare for the transfer pathway to UC Berkeley.

Preparing for College:
High School Years

11:30 AM — 12:30 PM
20 Barrows Hall

How should students in grades 9-12 begin preparing for college now? How can parents and families support them on their educational journey? Get answers here.

Financing a College Education

1:00 PM — 2:00 PM
126 Barrows Hall

Students and families learn how to pay for a college education, and about financial aid, completing forms, application procedures, and private scholarships.

*To find Barrows Hall, please see map on reverse

Campus Map

Please see the campus map below to help you find Barrows Hall, located on the southeastern side of campus, where our workshops will be held.

- KEY: ■ “Kindergarten to College” tent
○ Barrows Hall, where we will have our workshops

Hosted by:
Center for Educational Partnerships
University of California, Berkeley
Making College Dreams a Reality

Parking and Transportation

Take BART or AC Transit to Downtown Berkeley and use free campus shuttles

For information call 510/642-2294
or visit: calday.berkeley.edu