JOB AND INTERN OPPORTUNITIES

This section includes: job readiness classes, employment, internships, stipend work

YOUTH (14-21) & TAY: Transitional Aged Youth (16-24)

WHO: New Door Ventures

WHAT: JOBS for TAY at New Door all year-round!

WHERE: New Door Ventures, 3221 20th Street, San Francisco

WHEN: 1st step for interested youth: Attend one of our information sessions offered twice weekly at our Mission warehouse: 3221 20th Street (service providers are welcome to sit in on an info session as well to learn more) Tuesdays, 10:30 am & Thursdays, 4 pm

CONTACT: If you have more questions about our programs, please contact \(415\) 857-9412 and a staff member will answer your questions.

NOTES: 2nd step to apply to internship or education program: attend a one-on-one interview and take an application at the end of the info session. All youth who make it ON TIME to the information session are invited to take an application and schedule a one-on-one interview with one of our case managers. After the info session and an interview, youth are required to complete a few other follow ups such as obtaining and bringing original work eligibility documents so we recommend that youth come a couple weeks before the start date of a cohort but it is never a bad time for youth to attend the info session! 3rd step: complete follow up steps as directed

JOB OPPORTUNITIES: New Door interns work at either Ashbury Images, our silk screening business; Pedal Revolution, our full service bicycle shop; or one of our local business partners. We have 75+ community partners, local businesses that agree to employ youth from our program. New Door's current roster of partners represent a diverse array of industries, such as food service and hospitality; office and administrative support for legal and financial services; childcare and after-school programs creative arts and media; and hands-on labor. Before a youth begins employment, they must complete a 2-week pre-job training orientation. Youth receive a stipend based on their attendance, totaling $150 for completing the orientation. Orientations are 2 weeks long, Monday through Friday from 2-5 pm. New Door youth interns receive an hourly wage (SF minimum wage rate $14.00), transportation support for each month of program engagement, and on-going educational & case management support. I have attached our program flyer for you to distribute as well as our referral form if you have any youth to refer to us. 2017 cohorts dates: Each month (with the exception of December) we will have cohorts starting their pre-job orientation during the 2nd to last week of the month.

BAYVIEW JOBS

WHO: Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy

WHAT: Bayview Outreach and Community Liaison Coordinator

WHERE: Candlestick Point State Park

WHEN/CONTACT: For full job description. Resumes and cover letters by Monday October 16 to Jennifer Greene JGreene@parksconservancy.org

NOTES: The position is responsible for coordinating and support a community engagement project in the Bayview Hunters Point neighborhood in partnership with CA State Parks and other community based partner organizations and individuals. The position is a part-time (18-25hrs), temporary position for one year. Hours and days of the week are flexible and we can arrange a schedule that works for the employee. There is one mandatory leadership and program training: November 14-17, 2017, 8:30 AM – 5:00 PM.

WHO: Bayview Hunters Point Foundation

WHAT: CASE COORDINATOR, ROSIE

WHERE: 5015 Third Street

WHEN: Immediately

CONTACT: info@bayviewci.org

NOTES: GENERAL DESCRIPTION: Under supervision, this position performs Gender Responsive Aftercare/Re-entry Case Management in an outpatient gender specific program for in-risk girls/young women 14-25 years of age who have completed the ERC requirements or are referred from JPD, juvenile hall, adult probation and other CBOs. Participants will need ongoing hands-on support to follow-up with positive life choices in school, the community and with court obligations. Two groups will be targeted: 1) Highly at risk and in-risk girls 14-18 who are in school – with services provided at school, in the home or other community locations, e.g., partner CBOs.; and, 2) Young women aged 18-25 who are out of school – these youths will need to develop a base in the community, and learn where to go for resources or support. Duties include restorative, risk-reduction, and intensive case management. The primary goal is to return clients to previous functioning level within 6 months.

WHO: Open Door Legal

WHAT: Frontline Coordinator & Office Manager

WHERE: San Francisco

WHEN: As soon as possible

CONTACT: For full job description and to apply, click here.

NOTES: The frontline coordinator position is a critical part of the administration of Open Door Legal. The frontline coordinator is the first point of contact for all current and prospective clients. Thus, the frontline coordinator is ultimately responsible for our mission being met, as you must successfully triage all incoming legal issues, and ensure that all clients get appropriate services in a timely manner. Our small and informal office is highly trafficked by individuals who have suffered trauma, who are deeply distraught, or who are sometimes hostile and difficult to manage. Success in this position requires excellent interpersonal skills, including the abilities to empathize, set boundaries, de-escalate conflict, and cope with trauma. The frontline coordinator must be flexible and creative in handling challenges as they arise. In addition, the frontline coordinator provides administrative support for the organization and supports internal operations. You are responsible for providing basic administrative support to attorneys, staff and social workers with our partner agency The Salvation Army Bayview. You will need to help us come up with creative and efficient solutions for organizing and managing a high-volume, fast-paced workflow. You will supervise our youth interns who help with front desk tasks and will be supervised by our Director of Legal Services. Lastly, the frontline coordinator is responsible for general office management and facilities responsibilities. This includes managing any requests or concerns regarding the office space or needed office supplies, handling all incoming mail and handling office billing/receiving. Salary range is $30,000 to $36,000 per year depending on experience.
