

COMMUNITY CALENDAR: MARCH EDITION #503
Updated: 3/8/18

FALL/WINTER EXCLUSIVES

This section includes: Holiday events and other key seasonal dates

WHO: Young Community Developers

WHAT: “Chop Shop” – a Community and Law Enforcement Film Premiere

WHERE/WHEN: Bayview Opera House: Mar 8, 7-9pm

CONTACT: To secure your tickets to this free event please access www.eventbrite.com.

NOTES: This documentary film facilitates a youth-lead dialogue between San Francisco residents of color and local law enforcement in barbershops across The City. The film highlights topics of implicit bias, people of color in law enforcement, violence and ways of moving forward together. Following the screening will be a panel discussion with San Francisco law enforcement – a chance for audience members to confront issues affecting their communities, as well as make a tangible impression on youth, our future leaders. Constructive conversation in an open forum is the first step toward positive change, and a way to address misconceived notions between communities of color and law enforcement. The objective is to address the tension and develop a set of recommendations to change the current culture, and it can’t be done without you. Bring YOUR voice to the conversation.

WHO: Bayview Opera House

WHAT: All of Me + Mujeres Luz | Film Screening, Art, Q&A

WHERE: Bayview Opera House Ruth Williams Memorial Theatre, 4705 3rd Street

WHEN: Friday, March 16th 6-9:30pm

CONTACT: For more info & to RSVP to this free event, click here.

NOTES: In honor of Women’s History Month, the painting series “Mujeres Luz” by Talavera-Ballón celebrates the women of our time who are making history thanks to their courage, generosity and commitment to making the world a better place. About the Artist: Talavera-Ballón is a Peruvian-born painter based in San Francisco, CA. His work highlights the lives and struggles of farm workers, indigenous people and immigrants throughout Latin America and the US. About the Film: Mexico and the United States share the greatest border between the first and the third world. That makes it a bridge for thousands of migrants who expose themselves to every danger as they travel through the country on a train called “The Beast.” That’s where they meet the Patronas, a group of Mexican women who, every day since 1995, make food and toss it to the helpless as the train rushes by.

WHEN: April 26, 2018

CONTACT: <https://www.yefsf.org/youth-advocacy-day>

NOTES: Youth Advocacy Day 2018 will take place on Thursday, April 26 from 8:30am to 4pm. Nonprofit organizations and school groups are invited to register up to ten high-school aged youth to attend Youth Advocacy Day. Registration for Youth Advocacy Day is on a first come, first served basis, so please register your group as early as possible. In addition to attendee registration, two major Youth Advocacy Day opportunities are currently open: Become a Youth Leader. Youth Advocacy Day is led entirely by Youth Leaders, and the SF Youth Empowerment Fund is currently recruiting the Youth Leader corps for 2018. Youth interested in becoming a Youth Leader must be between 14-19 years old, have strong facilitation skills, and be available for all Youth Leader training sessions, Youth Advocacy Day, and a Youth Leader Debrief (a total of 20 hours). Youth Leaders will receive a $125 stipend for their work. For more information about becoming a Youth Leader contact Wahid Ahmed at Wahid@yefsf.org. Register to Be an Adult Ally. Adult Allies are assigned to a group of 15 students and two trained Youth Leaders. Adult Allies will be the adult presence in each group, guaranteeing supervision and safety as well as support for Youth Leaders as needed. Adult Allies will follow their group throughout the day, and will experience youth leadership at its finest. Visit this link to register to be an Adult Ally.
