CONTACT: Have questions about the Clerical Eligibility Test? e-mail: RAS.Proctor@sfgov.org or call: 415-557-4858. You must file an application on the City's website.

NOTES: The City is offering a Clerical Eligibility Test this summer. All you need is a high school diploma or GED to enroll. If you pass this test, you will receive a certificate that takes the place of one year of clerical experience required to take the Junior Clerk (1402) or Clerk (1404) test. The City will give the Clerical Eligibility Test at least weekly through mid-August. The certificate will be valid for three years. If you have your certificate you can apply for the Junior Clerk (1402) or Clerk (1404) test in September 2018. You will attach a copy of your certificate when you apply. You will receive an e-mail telling you whether you meet the requirements. If you do, you will also receive your test date, time and location. Appointments are on a first-come, first-served basis. If you miss your test date, you will only get a new date if there are openings. Passing the Clerical Eligibility Test does not guarantee you a job. It provides you with a chance to take the job exam later this year even if you don't have clerical experience.
