WHO: Bayview Community

WHAT: 2nd Annual Black History Parade

WHERE: MLK Park to Ruth Williams Opera House

WHEN: February 18th @ 10am

NOTES: On Monday February 18, 2019, Creating Conscious Minds, Bayview YMCA, and other community-based organizations are hosting the 2nd Annual Black History Parade. The goal of the parade is to celebrate the history of the Bayview community by promoting awareness around the various areas of wealth it holds. In order to preserve our rich history as we continue to build a legacy, we wish to highlight the accomplishments of African American luminaries from our own community as well as the leaders of today's generation. The youth in the community are at the forefront of the parade. All elementary and middle schools within the surrounding area are involved and will showcase students' talents as we honor luminaries in the community. Each school has received a list of important figures in the Bayview and will make posters for each activist. In addition to getting the school involved, we also have invited local talents to represent Bayview's rich history.
