Getting Around San Francisco
How do you get around?

Show of hands - how did you get around most over the past week?

- Public transit (MUNI, Bart, Paratransit)
- Walking
- Biking
- Driving yourself
- Being driven (by a friend, or Taxi/Uber/Lyft etc.)
Walk San Francisco

- The city’s pedestrian advocacy group. We speak up for everyone who walks (that’s you!)

- Not getting paid by the city to be here
New City Idea

What if it cost money to drive on the busiest streets during the busiest parts of the day?
Where It’s Been Done

London, England

Stockholm, Sweden

Singapore

New York City (2021)
How could this work here?
Share your feedback so we can shape the City study

Online at bit.ly/bayviewroads by next Monday 2/24

One random person from this session who gives feedback will win $25 Clipper Card
What’s next?

- Hearing from more community members and groups
  - Who else should we hear from? Are you in other neighborhood groups we could hear from?

- Sharing this feedback with City leaders to make sure they hear your concerns and ideas

- City is studying road pricing in throughout 2020

- Stay engaged - we’ll share more information if you signed up for updates on sign-in sheet
Thank you!

Brian Haagsman, Vision Zero Organizer

brian@walksf.org