WHO: State of California Employment Development Department
WHAT: Apply for Disability Insurance, Paid Family Leave, Self-Employed/Independent Contractor Insurance & Unemployment Insurance
CONTACT: For more information & to apply for assistance, click here
NOTES: Sick or Quarantined - If you’re unable to work due to having or being exposed to COVID-19 (certified by a medical professional), you can file a Disability Insurance (DI) claim. DI provides short-term benefit payments to eligible workers who have a full or partial loss of wages due to a non-work-related illness, injury, or pregnancy. Caregiving - If you’re unable to work because you are caring for an ill or quarantined family member with COVID-19 (certified by a medical professional), you can file a Paid Family Leave (PFL) claim. PFL provides up to six weeks of benefit payments to eligible workers who have a full or partial loss of wages because they need time off work to care for a seriously ill family member or to bond with a new child. School Closures - If your child’s school is closed, and you have to miss work to be there for them, you may be eligible for Unemployment Insurance benefits. Eligibility considerations include if you have no other care options and if you are unable to continue working your normal hours remotely. File an Unemployment Insurance claim and our EDD representatives will decide if you are eligible. Reduced Work Hours - If your employer has reduced your hours or shut down operations due to COVID-19, you can file an Unemployment Insurance (UI) claim. UI provides partial wage replacement benefit payments to workers who lose their job or have their hours reduced, through no fault of their own. Self-Employed - The available benefits are insurance programs. To be eligible, either you or an employer had to make contributions in the past 5 to 18 months. It is possible these contributions were made at a prior job, or if you were misclassified as an independent contractor instead of an employee. We encourage you to apply for the benefit program that is most appropriate for your situation. Visit Self-Employed/Independent Contractor to learn more.

WHO: San Francisco Planning
WHAT: Islais Creek Adaptation Strategy Survey
WHEN: Ongoing
CONTACT: www.sfplanning.org/project/islais
NOTES: The Islais Creek Adaptation Strategy is a two-year community planning process in the Islais Creek area that will develop actionable strategies that address sea level rise and coastal flood risk through a robust public engagement process. Building on the Resilient by Design proposal and other city and regional efforts, the SMAS will develop a long-range vision for the Islais Creek shoreline, asset-specific solutions for public infrastructure, and a prioritized funding and implementation strategy that increases the resilience of the community and provides improved transportation networks and new open space. This is a collaboration between the Port and MTA. We are in the beginning initial phases of framing a robust engagement process and this survey will help us identify community priorities as we dive deeper into addressing this issue.

WHO: San Francisco CARD
WHAT: Grants for Emergency Preparedness Among Vulnerable Populations
WHERE: San Francisco
WHEN: Through December 2020
CONTACT: Heather Lee heather@sfcard.org 415-410-3639
NOTES: The State of California’s Office of Emergency Services (CAL OES) has allocated $2 million to San Francisco Community Agencies Responding to Disaster (SF CARD) to engage and empower San Francisco’s most vulnerable populations in emergency preparedness. Through the Listos program, SF CARD plans to reach 250,000 of San Francisco’s vulnerable population with the message of disaster resiliency concluding in December 2020. This funding enables local CBO’s to expand and strengthen peer-to-peer networks as well as deliver linguistically and culturally appropriate public awareness and outreach campaigns. SF CARD’s Listos program priorities fall into the following three areas of: extreme heat, poor air quality and seismic activity. SF CARD is also open to programs that partner organizations are already engaged in or have planned.
